Hoping you all had happy holidays and what an amazing start to the New Year it has been. A new library, snow and much more! Without further ado, ENJOY!

Poem of the Month

Every issue, we do a Poem of the Month.
Here is #1.

By Izumi Shibiku

Why did you vanish
into the empty sky?
Even the fragile snow
when it falls,
falls in this world.

Reports, news narration and more! All the latest at Queen's Park.

NEW UPSTAIRS LIBRARY STUNS STUDENTS

As of time of writing, a new library has been unveiled inside the junior hall. It can be found in the centre of the hall, adjacent to the Year 3 & 4 classrooms, and is packed to the brim with interesting books. Popular titles, such as Horrible Histories, are visible, as well as less well known publications. This brings reading to a whole new sector of the school, allowing junior students to have easy access to books they'll enjoy. It is also a calm, peaceful, comfy place, perfect for relaxation.

Spectacular Snow!

In an unexpected turn of events, heaps of snow fell from the sky on Wednesday January 8 2025. The snow was sheerly unexpected, and caused major delays and car car abandonings all across Sussex. More importantly, however, it caused snow much fun for everyone! Reportedly one of the heaviest Brightonian snowfalls in conjurable memory! Here is a collection of snow jokes to make your day.

1. I'm snow glad we're friends.
2. This is snow laughing matter!
3. Snowverwhelmed by the beauty of winter.
4. May your days be merry and bright, and your snowmen always upright!
5. Winter is snow much fun!

Paddington in Peru

PG

★★★★☆ 4.75/5 Stars

This movie is AMAZING!!!!!! The plot is, thick, interesting, and designed meticulously to keep you entertained. It is full to the brim with witty shenanigans, but also has the slight undertone of a serious(ish) story. This amazing story marks the fourth movie of the nation's favourite bear. All I can say is, WOW!

In 3 Words:
Witty, Adventurous, Remarkable.
